Land Acknowledgement

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations – the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishinaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishinaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

We welcome the members of the Royal Canadian Legion Todmorden Br. 10 as our colour guard and piper today.

Collect of the Day
Celebrant Father of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD (Please be seated.)
A READING FROM THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON
But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect. (Wisdom 3:1-9)

Reader The word of the Lord.
People* Thanks be to God.

PSALM 116

H. ALDRICH

My delight is ' in the ' Lord,
*because he hath ' heard the ' voice of · my ' prayer;

2 Because he hath inclined his ' ear unto ' me,
*therefore will I call upon ' him as ' long as · I ' live.

3 The cords of death compassed me ' round a' bout,
*and the pains of ' hell gat ' hold up'on me.

4 I found trouble and heaviness, and I called upon the ' ' Name · of the ' Lord:
*'O Lord, I be'seech thee · de'liver my ' soul.'

5 Gracious is the ' Lord and ' righteous;
*yea ' our ' God is ' merciful.

6 The Lord pre'serveth the ' simple:
*I was in ' mise-ry ' and he ' helped me.

7 Turn again then unto thy rest ' O my ' soul;
*for the ' Lord hath · dealt ' bounti-fully ' with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my ' soul from ' death,

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (1 Peter 1:3-9)

Gradual Hymn SNC 145 Son of God (Please stand in body or spirit)

1. Son of God, whose heart is peace, Son of God, most holy, to your presence we have come; give us now your love.

2. Take away our sinfulness, evil that imprisons us.
Free us from what troubles us; give our souls release.

3. Warm our hearts to love you, Lord, you who died to save us.
Gather us within your arms, Jesus, on this day.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John
People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away; for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day.' (John 6:37-40)

Deacon The Gospel of Christ.
All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon The Rev. Louise Dightam

Anthem Dona Nobis Pacem (from Mass No. 5 in A-Flat Major, D. 678) – Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

The Apostles' Creed (Please rise in body or in spirit.)
Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,
All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People by Edward Schlauch (Stand, sit or kneel.)

Confession and Absolution
Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace (Please stand in body or spirit.)
Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.
(Please exchange the Peace however you are comfortable.)

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion or a blessing. Gluten-free hosts and non-alcoholic juice are available upon request. It is not permitted to dip the bread in the wine for health reasons. If you prefer not to sip from the common cup, reverently touch the base of the chalice when it is presented. If you choose not to receive communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing - simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate this to the priest. You may kneel or stand at the communion rail, or signal to the sidesperson and communion or a blessing will be brought to you in your pew.

Offertory Hymn Put Peace into Each Other's Hands (Tune: ST. COLUMBA)

1. Put peace into each other's hands and like a treasure hold it;
Protect it like a candle flame, with tenderness enfold it.

2. Put peace into each other's hands with loving expectation;
Be gentle in your words and ways, in touch with God's creation.

3. Put peace into each other's hands, like bread we break for sharing;
Look people warmly in the eye: our life is meant for caring.

4. Give thanks for strong yet tender hands, held out in trust and blessing.
Where words fall short, let hands speak out, the heights of love expressing.

5. Reach out in friendship, stay with faith, in touch with those around you.
Put peace into each other's hands: the Peace that sought and found you.

Prayer over the Gifts

Celebrant Gracious and righteous Lord, we are united in the love of Jesus Christ. Accept all we offer you this day, and bring us, with all your faithful people who have gone before us, into his eternal glory; who is Lord, now and for ever. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

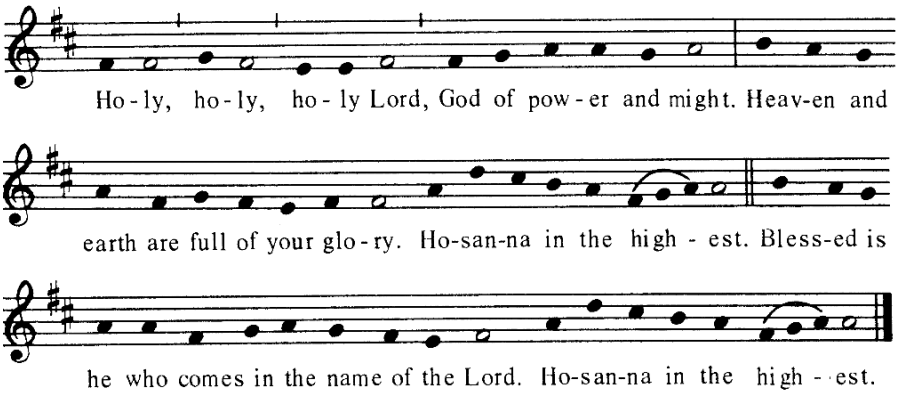
Celebrant It is indeed right that we should praise you, gracious God, for you created all things. You formed us in your own image: in love you created us. When we turned away from you in sin, you did not cease to care for us, but opened a path of salvation for all people. You made a covenant with Israel, and through your servants Abraham and Sarah gave the promise of a blessing to all nations. Through Moses you led your people from bondage into freedom; through the prophets you renewed your promise of salvation. Therefore, with them, and with all your saints who have served you in every age, we give thanks and raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

SANCTUS



Music: New Plainsong, Hurd © 1981, GIA Publications, Inc. Contributors: David Hurd Tune: © 1981, GIA Publications, Inc. New Plainsong Mass - Sanctus. One License Song #00972

(You may stand, sit or kneel for the rest of the Eucharistic prayer.)

Celebrant Holy God, source of life and goodness, all creation rightly gives you praise. In the fullness of time, you sent your Son Jesus Christ, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He healed the sick and ate and drank with outcasts and sinners; he opened the eyes of the blind and proclaimed the good news of your kingdom to the poor and to those in need. In all things he fulfilled your gracious will.

On the night he freely gave himself to death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Gracious God, his perfect sacrifice destroys the power of sin and death; by raising him to life you give us life for evermore.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant Recalling his death, proclaiming his resurrection, and looking for his coming again in glory, we offer you, Father, this bread and this cup. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts, that all who eat and drink at this table may be one body and one holy people, a living sacrifice in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Communion Hymn 472 Eternal God, Lord of All Space and Time

Cello solo during Communion: Largo from Cello Sonata No. 5 – Vivaldi
(Ron Harry, cello)

Prayer after Communion (Please stand in body or spirit.)
Celebrant God of love, may the death and resurrection of Christ, which we celebrate in this eucharist, bring us, with the faithful departed, into the peace of your eternal home. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our hope and our salvation. Amen.

Doxology
Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing
Celebrant: The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Closing Hymn 573 O Day of Peace
