Land Acknowledgement

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations – the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishinaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishinaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

A READING FROM JOEL

Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things! Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield. O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing-floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame. (Joel 2:21-27)

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

When the Lord restored the ' fortunes of ' Sion,
 *then were we ' like unto ' them that ' dream.

2 Then was our mouth ' filled with ' laughter,
 *and our ' tongue ' with ' joy.

3 Then said they a'mong the ' nations,
 *'The Lord hath ' done great ' things for ' them.'

4 Yea the Lord hath done great things for ' us al'ready;
 *where'of ' we re' joice.

5 Restore our ' fortunes, O ' Lord,
 *as the ' rivers ' in the ' South.

6 They that ' sow in ' tears
 *shall ' reap ' in ' joy.

2nd 7 He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth ' forth his ' seed,
 *shall doubtless come again with joy, and ' bring his '
 ' sheaves ' with him.

Glory be to the Father, and ' to the ' Son,
 *and ' to the ' Holy ' Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ' ever ' shall be,
 *world without ' end. ' A'men.

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. (1 Timothy 2:1-7)

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

1. Give thanks for life, the measure of our days;
mortal we pass through beauty that decays,
yet sing to God our hope, our love, our praise:
hallelujah, hallelujah!
2. Give thanks for those who made their life a light caught from the Christ-flame, bursting through the night,
who touched the truth, who burned for what is right:
hallelujah, hallelujah!
3. And for our own, our living and our dead,
thanks for the love by which our life is fed,
a love not changed by time or death or dread:
hallelujah, hallelujah!
4. Give thanks for hope, that like the wheat, the grain lying in darkness, does its life retain in resurrection to grown green again:
hallelujah, hallelujah!

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

‘Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

(Matthew 6:25-33)

Deacon The Gospel of Christ.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon The Rev. Louise Dightam

The Apostles’ Creed (Please rise in body or in spirit.)

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People by Karen Hunter

(Please stand, sit or kneel.)

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God’s forgiveness.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
